Expropriation, valuation and payment of compensation is one component of land administration. As a one component the government should establish and strengthen an institution responsible for this component. In Ethiopia, land is the common property of the 'state and the people', and, hence, is not subject to sale, exchange or mortgage.

EXPROPRIATION, VALUATION AND PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION; THE ...

Within 90 days of an expropriation coming to fruition on title to your property, the expropriating authority must offer you compensation for the taking. This offer can be accepted "without prejudice" - leaving available an opportunity to seek additional compensation. Often, Section 25 offers do not include full and fair compensation for injurious affection and business damages, so a further claim should be pursued even after the acceptance of the Section 25 compensation payment.
