Lust for Life (novel) - Wikipedia

Written with a passion reminiscent of Vincent Van Gogh's paintings, Irving Stone's "Lust for Life" is a fictionalized biography of the famed post-Impressionist painter. Stone starts his story during Van Gogh's teenaged years, living with his strict Calvinist parents (his father was a predikant , a Dutch Calvinist minister), somewhat struggling against the strictures of his life.

Lust for Life by Irving Stone - Goodreads

"Lust for Life" is a very good debut novel authored by Irving Stone. It closely follows the life of Vincent van Gogh. There is much dialogue that has to have been imagined. There is also a fairly strange delusional episode that the author states is fictionalized.

We accept life in its entirety without making moral judgments. We think the prostitute is as good as the countess, the concierge as good as the general, the peasant as good as the cabinet minister, for they all fit into the pattern of nature and are woven into the design of life!" — Irving Stone, Lust for Life
